2. REASON FOR HEARING

- 2.2 The review application supplied by the Home Office has not been published; some of the material contained in the document could prejudice any future criminal proceedings. The application will also be made available to the Licensing Sub-Committee panel.

- 2.4 If any such an application is made, the Sub-Committee will need to consider and determine the application pursuant to Regulation 14 of The Licensing Act 2003 (Hearings) Regulations 2005, on the day of the hearing.
- 2.5 Summary of grounds for review:

This review has been called under the grounds of the licensing objective 'prevention of crime and disorder'.

The Home Office conducted an enforcement visit on 25 April 2019. One female was identified to be working in breach of her visit visa.

3. POINTS FOR CONSIDERATION

- 3.1 In exercising its licensing functions, the Licensing Authority has stated in its licensing policy that it will primarily focus on the direct impact of the licensable activities taking place at the licensed premises on members of the public living, working or engaged in normal activity in the vicinity of the premises.
- 3.2 The attention of the Sub-Committee is drawn to the following:

- a) The Licensing Act 2003 Section 4 requires the Sub-Committee to have regard to:
- Guidance Issued under Section 182 of the Licensing Act 2003.
 - The Council's Statement of Licensing Policy

If the Sub-Committee has reason to depart from the above it is asked to give full reasons for so doing.

- b) Human Rights Act 1998

The Human Rights Act 1998 came into force on the 2 October 2000. The Sub-Committee is urged to have careful regard of its provisions.

It is unlawful for a public authority (this expression includes local authorities) to act in a way which is incompatible with a human right.

As far as the applicant's right to a fair hearing is concerned (Article 6), the applicant has a right to be heard by the Licensing Sub-Committee. If this application is refused or granted subject to modification, the applicant has a right of appeal to the Magistrates' Court.

In assessing the impact of human rights the Sub-Committee must seek to strike a balance between the right of the proprietors in the business to conduct it as they wish and local residents who may find its activities intrusive. In this context a business is a "possession" and the human right is expressed to be for the "peaceful enjoyment" of it. A rider to this human right empowers the Council to control the enjoyment of that business by its proprietors in the general interest. At the same time, local residents are entitled to the peaceful enjoyment of their homes.

- 3.3 The relevant notices about this hearing have been served on the applicant and the premises licence holder and they have until 10 October 2019 to confirm that they intend to attend (or not) as the case may be and give notice that they wish to call witnesses.

4. CONCLUSION

- 4.1 The Sub-Committee will be asked to determine this application by:

- Modifying the conditions of the licence

This could include either imposing further conditions on the licence or changing (for example, further restricting) the hours of certain licensable activities, where this is proportionate and relevant to the licensing objectives;

For this purpose, the conditions of the licence are modified if any of them are altered or omitted, or any new condition is added.

- Excluding a licensable activity from the scope of the licence

The sub-committee may decide that it is proportionate and relevant to the licensing objectives to remove one or more of the licensable activities

- Remove the Designated Premises Supervisor (DPS)

- Suspend the licence for a period not exceeding three months
- Revoke the licence

4.2 If the decision reached by the Sub-Committee results in differences between the conditions attached to the licence and the planning permission currently in force for these premises, the applicant should be advised that the planning permission must be adhered to unless and until it is amended to reflect the conditions attached to the licence.

4.3 Depending on the decision of the Sub-Committee, the applicant and / or responsible authority and interested parties that have made representations have rights of appeal to the Magistrates Court.

4.4 When announcing its decision, the Sub-Committee is asked to state its reasons.
