

Teresa Bailey

From: Hettie Hope <[REDACTED]>
Sent: 25 November 2022 17:39
To: Teresa Bailey
Cc: Harry Young; Matthew Walker
Subject: Film licensing requests for Aldeburgh Festival 2023

Dear Teresa

I'm a producer at Britten Pears Arts at Snape Maltings, I'm currently working on our film programme for the 2023 Aldeburgh Festival in June.

I hear from Harry that we need to send licensing requests to you before advertising any screenings. Festival event listings will shortly be complete, going to print for our brochure on 12 December, then online from 19th. I would be very grateful for your confirmation of the following as soon as possible:

11am Thursday 11 June at Aldeburgh Cinema

Billy Budd - Britten opera film, BBC Television version, b& w, 1966. No BBFC classification, not made for cinema release. BFI has licenced this screening. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

11am Thursday 19 June at Aldeburgh Cinema

An Empty Stage: John Piper's vision of spirit, time and place - independent documentary film made by Goldmark Art about the artist John Piper. No BBFC classification, not made for cinema release. Goldmark Art has licenced this screening.
[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

11am Thursday 22 June at Aldeburgh Cinema

Four Quartets on Film directed by Tim Hopkins. Four short independent films made in response to string quartets by composers John Woolrich, Judith Weir, Joe Cutler and Helen Grime. The Woolrich film has previously had a public screening [REDACTED] The others are still in post- production, I can obtain rough cuts if required? Total duration of all four will be around 60'. No BBFC classification, not made for general cinema release.

9.30pm Friday 23 June at Britten Studio, Snape

Stanley Kubrick's cult classic film 2001; a space odyssey (1968). Licenced through Filmbank Media, with special approval granted by the rights holders.

BBFC Classification is U [REDACTED]

Please do let me know if you have any questions, I'll next be at work on Tuesday 29th.

With thanks and best wishes,