East Suffolk Council

Appendix J: The proportions of `Planning that were at the Referral Panel between 1 April 2021 and 31 March 2022 shown by ward on a map of the district.

1:200000

- ■ Percentage that didn't trigger Referral Process
- ■ Percentage that did trigger the Referral Process

Lothingland — 4.00% / 96.00%
Gunton and St Margarets — 7.41% / 92.59%
Oulton Broad — 10.45% / 89.55%
Carlton Colville — 3.08% / 96.92%
Beccles and Worlingham — 12.63% / 87.37%
Bungay and Wainford — 9.09% / 90.91%
Halesworth and Blything — 3.19% / 96.81%
Kelsale and Yoxford — 6.90% / 93.10%
Harbour and Normanston — 7.14% / 92.86%
Kirkley and Pakefield — 14.08% / 85.92%
Carlton and Whitton — 1.96% / 98.04%
Kessingland — 5.80% / 94.20%
Southwold — 18.95% / 81.05%

Saxmundham — No items at the Referral Panel

Framlingham — 7.53% / 92.47%
Wrentham, Wangford and Westleton — 12.20% / 87.80%
Aldeburgh & Leiston — 7.11% / 92.89%
Wickham Market — 11.76% / 88.24%
Woodbridge — 9.57% / 90.43%
Rendlesham and Orford — 32.26% / 67.74%
Carlford & Fynn Valley — 13.14% / 86.86%

Melton — 0.00% — No items at the Referral Panel

Deben — 6.25% / 93.75%

Rushmere St Andrew — 28.57% / 71.43%
Orwell and Villages — 10.53% / 89.47%
Felixstowe East — 9.33% / 89.47%
Kesgrave — 7.50% / 92.50%
Martlesham and Purdis Farm — 9.80% / 90.20%
Felixstowe West — 5.56% / 94.44%

Figure 1 : Number of 'Planning Applications' and number triggering Referral Panel by Parish in alphabetical order

Number of potential items that didn't trigger referral   Number of referral items

Figure 2 : Number of 'Planning Applications' and number triggering Referral Panel by Parish, in order of total number of 'Planning Applications'

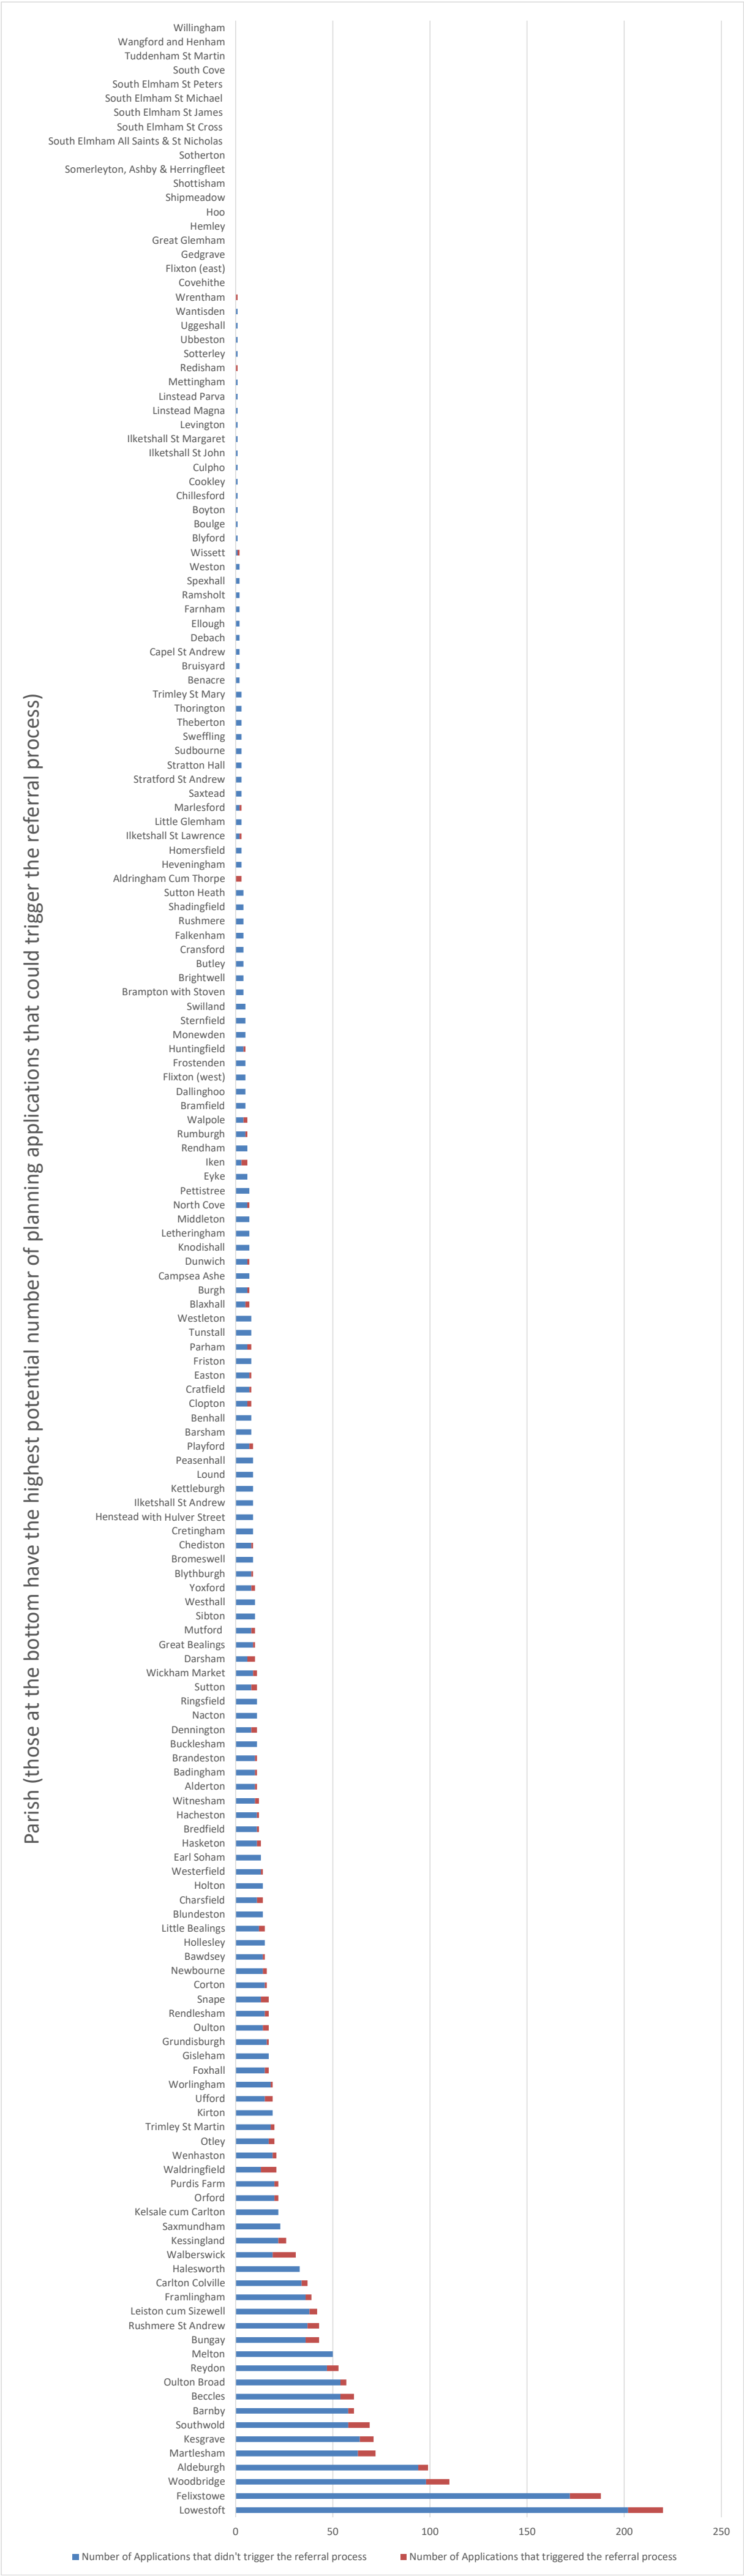

Parish (those at the bottom have the highest potential number of planning applications that could trigger the referral process)

■ Number of Applications that didn't trigger the referral process   ■ Number of Applications that triggered the referral process

Figure 3: Percentage of 'Planning Applications' triggering Referral Process, ordered by number of planning applications received within each Parish

■ Percentage that didn't trigger Referral Process   ■ Percentage that did trigger the Referral Process

Appendix L: Referral Panel items with comments from Ward Members between 1 April 2019 and 31 March 2022.
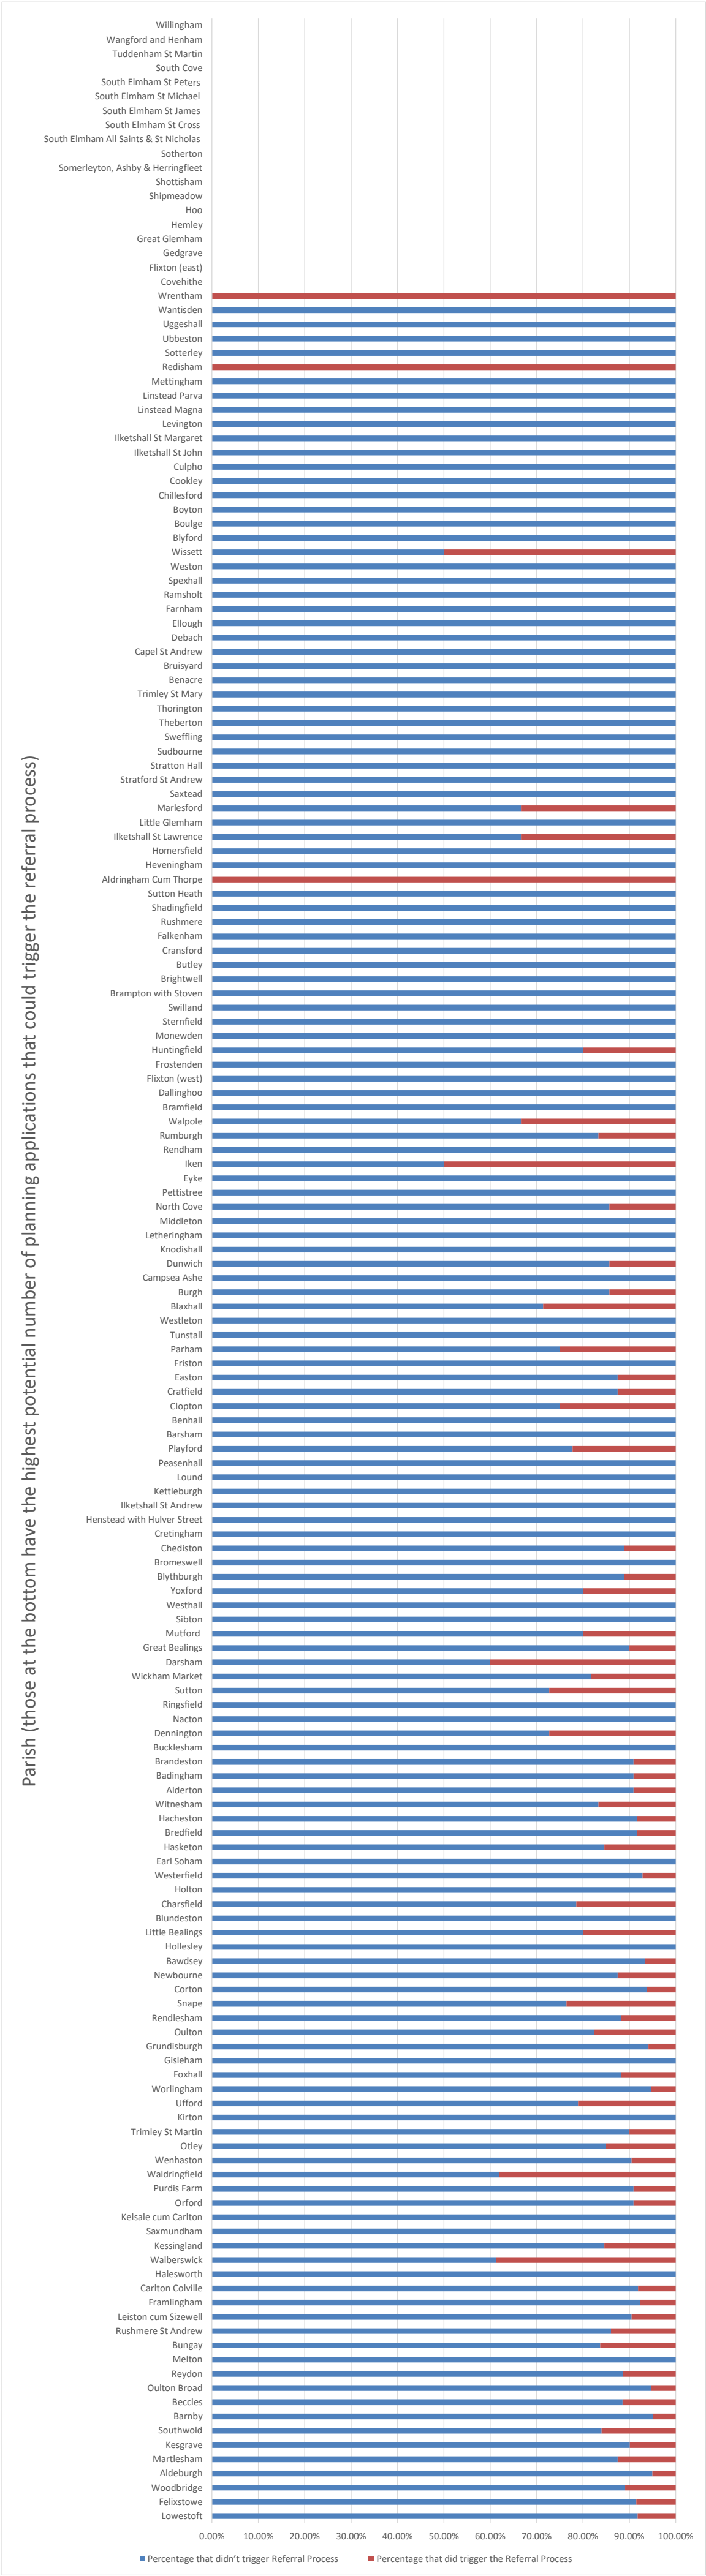

Figure 1: Percentage of those applications at Referral Panel with and without comments from Ward Members 1 April 2019 to 31 March 2022

Figure 2 – Number of wards with and without any comments on at least one application at the Planning Referral Panel 1 April 2019 to 31 March 2022
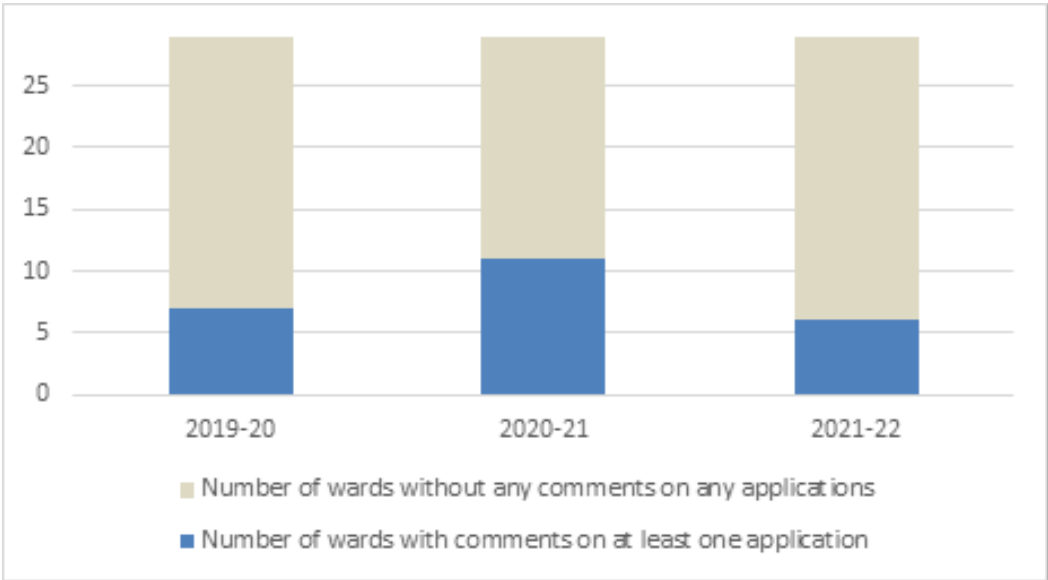

Figure 3: The number of applications with comments from the Ward Member at the Referral Panel shown by Ward 1 April 2019 to 31 March 2022

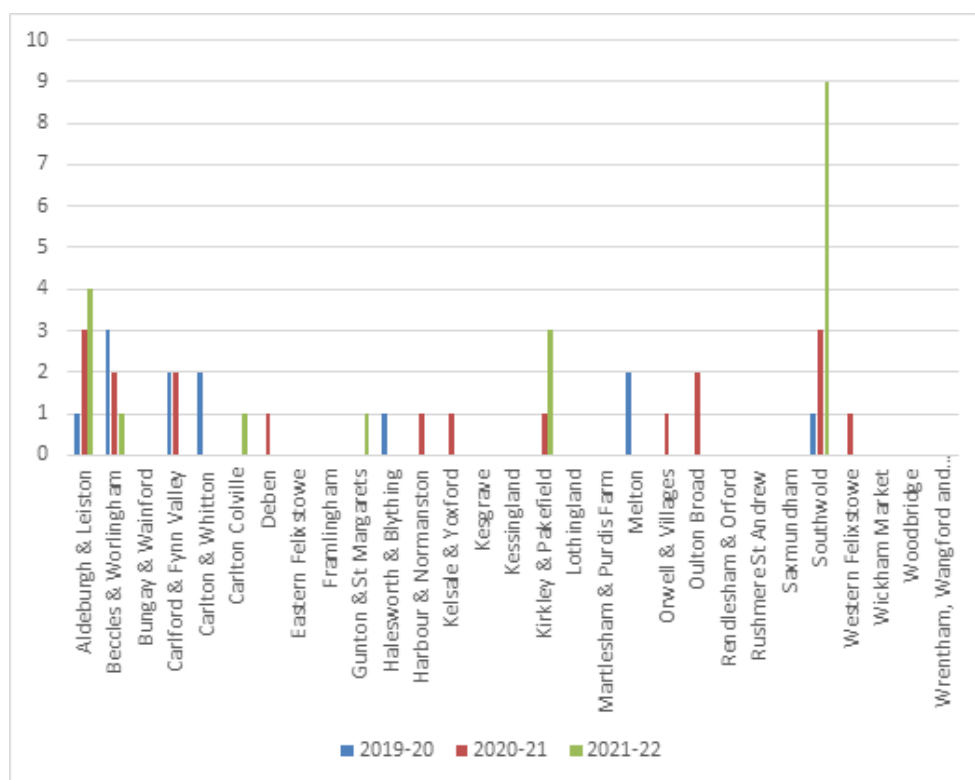

Figure 4: Percentage of applications at Referral panel within each ward on which the Ward Member(s) had submitted written comments (i.e. objected, made comments or supported) 1 April 2021 – 31 March 2022