Subject: Saxon Boy Screening

Hello,

I'm writing on behalf of the makers of the short film Saxon Boy (director George Chilcott) in the hope that we can get a license to screen the film at Aldeburgh Cinema for October 17th. I am the writer and Executive Producer of the film.

SAXON BOY synopsis:

A reclusive prepper, who's scared of where the world's headed moves out into the woods to live as an Anglo-Saxon. He's taken aback by his first visitor, Zoe. She asks too many questions. She's nosy and presumptive and opinionated. Saxon Boy isn't used to company. He's grumpy and shy and a little scared. Then he finds a hagstone - a stone with a hole through the middle - to add to his collection of trinkets and treasures. They say good fortune will find you through a hag stone... Two lost souls find solace in the woods of Suffolk.

Running time: 9 minutes 46 seconds.

There's nothing inappropriate in the film and I'd suggest the classification PG. There are mature themes: loneliness, climate concern, death.

British language, no subtitles.

It's being shown before Documentary THE NETTLE DRESS 12A so this will guarantee that the audience is a little older.

If you have any further questions or I've missed anything off the requirements please don't hesitate to get in touch.

Many thanks,
Tallulah
