Andy Jolliffe advised that he had met with staff at the Kesgrave War Memorial Community Centre, who were eager to begin the project; the project was restricted by the upcoming national lockdown but the Community Centre was looking to develop the project and bring in other parts of the local community, and look at different themes for each session.

Talking Benches

Funds had been transferred and the funding allocation meant that five benches could be purchased. An expression of interest email had been sent out with a deadline of 14 December 2020 to ensure all Parish Councils could discuss the offer. Two expressions of interest, from Martlesham Heath Householders' Association and Charsfield Parish Council, had been received.

Great Bealings Speed Limit Scheme

The Community Partnership's contribution to the project was being transferred to Great Bealings Parish Council on 4 November 2020.

SPOT Wellbeing

The programme had been discussed but the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic and the upcoming national lockdown meant it was not viable to start the programme at this time. It was intended that the programme would be started in January 2021, depending on the COVID-19 situation.

Environmental Grant Scheme

The scheme had been launched on 2 November 2020; the deadline for expressions of interest was 14 December 2020 and the panel would be meeting on 7 January 2021. One expression of interest had already been received.

Meet-Up Mondays

A new event at Café 66, Kesgrave had been launched four weeks ago, in compliance with social distancing measures. The group was growing organically and was being accessed by individuals who had limited or no interaction with others during the week. Andy Jolliffe advised that work was taking place with other venues and Community Action Suffolk to establish further events.

Mental Health First Aid Training

	It had originally been intended to run a two-day face to face course, however it was now possible to deliver the training online over half a day. Conversations had taken place with the training provider and it had been confirmed that up to 50 people could be trained through this method. Andy Jolliffe sought the views of Community Partnership members on whether to run the course in January 2021 or towards the end of November 2020 ready for the easing of the national lockdown. The Chair invited questions and comments on the existing projects. Community Partnership members supported running the Mental Health First Aid training in January 2021, considering the amount of uncertainty around the end of the upcoming national lockdown. Andy Jolliffe confirmed that the Mental Health First Aid course would be promoted through direct posting to certain organisations and parish councils to identify individuals in their communities who would benefit from the training. Andy Jolliffe added that advice would also be sought from Community Action Suffolk to ensure no-one was missed.
6.	Discussion around the Community Partnership’s priorities This item was to provide an opportunity to informally discuss the Community Partnership’s priorities. Andy Jolliffe highlighted the work completed on the social isolation and loneliness priority and considered that the Community Partnership began to look at its environmental care priority, suggesting that a working group could be formed to do this in detail. Members of the Community Partnership discussed what the environmental care priority meant, raising the following points: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Planting of native hedgerows and trees as part of housing development ● Co-existence with the climate emergency declarations made by Suffolk councils ● The environment in relation to the government’s White Paper on planning reformation ● Environmental focus in Neighbourhood Plans Mike Williamson explained that Martlesham Parish Council had formed a working group in response to the climate emergency declaration, which had produced a presentation on the subject. Mike Williamson confirmed that he would share this with Andy Jolliffe.

	ACTION Mike Williamson to send climate emergency presentation to Andy Jolliffe It was agreed that Councillor Fryatt, James Wright and Andy Jolliffe would form a working group to look at environmental care in detail and seek specialist knowledge on the subject. ACTION Councillor Fryatt, James Wright and Andy Jolliffe to form a working group to look at environmental care in detail and seek specialist knowledge on the subject.
7.	Dates of next meeting: A provisional date of 4 January 2021 at 2pm, via Zoom, was set as the next meeting date. ACTION Matt Makin to liaise with Cllr Blundell and Andy Jolliffe to confirm the next meeting date and communicate this to the Community Partnership.

The meeting concluded at 11.08 am
